Language proficiency	TOEFL iBT 79 or IELTS 6.0 and over is desirable (KUINEP student must be proficient in English.)	1 st level Japanese Language Proficiency Test or the equivalent is required. *1	Not required
Outline	KUINEP provides undergraduate level lectures in English. KUINEP is not a Japanese language study program, and it is aimed to deepen students' knowledge and understanding of Japan and its culture.	This is the program which students take ordinary courses taught in Japanese. Students in undergraduate faculties and in graduate schools are affiliated.	This is the program to deepen their own research under the instruction of academic supervisors without taking any courses lectured in classrooms. Japanese proficiency is not required if the supervisor can guide in the student by any other language.
Workload, etc.	Each semester, KUINEP students are required to register at least 6 courses of which two (or more) has to be from KUINEP core subjects (two credits per class). The students can take courses taught in English from Liberal Arts and General Education catalog. Those who have appropriate Japanese language proficiency can take regular classes offered by faculty with the lecturer's permission. They may even take more than 6 classes. *2	GE students will take ordinary courses offered by their faculty/graduate school. *2 Academic year of Kyoto U starts in April and ends in March. Faculties and Graduate schools of Kyoto U offer courses which conclude within one semester. However, most of the courses offered by Faculty /Graduate School of Letters are year-long courses which start in April and end in March. Such courses can be taken ONLY by students who stay at Kyoto U for one full year from APRIL to MARCH.	Course registration is not available to Special Research Student. Official credits will not be conferred.
Credits	2 credits for each KUINEP core subject	1-4 credits	Official credits will not be conferred.

*1: Faculty of Engineering/Graduate School of Informatics/Graduate school of Economics provides a few number of the courses lectured in English. It is possible to join the General Exchange Program without having sufficient Japanese language proficiency if student are able to find the courses matches to the subject he/she wishes to study at Kyoto-U, he/she may take those courses in English. For more information, please contact us well in advance before the dead-line date.

*2: Some seminars and courses involving practical training or experiments may preclude exchange students because of limit of numbers of students who are allowed to take them, on the basis of priority for regular students. Graduate level courses are NOT available to undergraduate students. Undergraduate level courses are NOT available to graduate students.

Japanese Language Courses
Outline	The International Center offers Japanese Language Courses. Japanese Language Courses are divided into three different levels (elementary, intermediate, and advanced). Students will be required to take a placement test at the beginning of each semester to determine their level of Japanese language proficiency.
Work Load	Exchange students can take maximum of 7 classes per week in each semester. KUINEP and General Exchange students (except GE special research student) will receive one credit each when they have completed.
